Information disclosure content:

According to the financial statements of Hanoi Textile and Garment Joint Stock Corporation:

Business results for Q3 2026:

+ Net profit after tax Q3/2025: VND 3,085,966,820
+ Net profit after tax Q3/2026: VND 29,902,416,534

Net profit after tax for Q3 2026 is increased by 10% or more compared to the same period of the previous year. Hanoi Textile and Garment Joint Stock Corporation would like to explain the reasons for this positive growth:

This positive growth result stems from improved production and business efficiency across the entire system. The yarn industry recorded a strong price recovery, and the Corporation proactively monitored and promptly grasped the price increases of input materials to optimize production costs. The garment industry recorded positive results thanks to maintaining good traditional customers and expanding its customer base. The towel industry had good order volumes and full production capacity. Besides favorable market factors, the Corporation strengthened production management, increased productivity, and reduced costs. The synchronized combination of these solutions helped increase the overall production and business efficiency of the Corporation compared to the same period last year.
