* Number of employees: As of September 30, 2026, the Company has 215 employees (1 January 2026: 192 employees).

II. ACCOUNTING SYSTEM AND ACCOUNTING POLICY

1. Accounting period and accounting currency

The Company's annual accounting period according to the calendar year begins on January 1 and ends on December 31 of each year.

This accounting period: From January 1, 2026 to September 30, 2026

The Company maintains its accounting records in Vietnam Dong (VND).

2. Standards and Applicable Accounting Policies

Applicable Accounting Policies

The Company applies the Enterprise Accounting Regime issued under Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC dated October 27, 2025 of the Ministry of Finance

Declaration of compliance with Accounting Standards and Accounting System

The Company has applied Vietnamese Accounting Standards and documents guiding the Standards issued by the State. Financial statements are prepared and presented in accordance with all provisions of each standard, circular guiding the implementation of the Standards and the current Enterprise Accounting Regime being applied.

3. Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions during the accounting period are converted into Vietnamese Dong at the actual exchange rate on the transaction date.

This actual exchange rate is determined according to the following principles:

- When buying and selling foreign currency: the exchange rate is specified in the foreign currency buying and selling contract between the Company and the commercial bank;
- Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the average bank transfer buying and selling exchange rate of the commercial bank where the Company regularly conducts transactions at the transaction date.

4. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash includes cash in hand and demand bank deposits.

Cash equivalents are short-term investments with a recovery period of no more than 03 months from the investment date, are highly liquid, can be easily converted into known amounts of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of conversion into cash.

5. Receivables

Receivables are tracked in detail by receivable term, receivable entity, original currency, and other factors according to the Company's management needs.

Provision for doubtful debts is made for each doubtful debt based on the expected level of loss that may occur.

6. Inventories

Inventories are initially recorded at cost, including purchase costs, processing costs and other directly related costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their location and condition at the time of initial recording. After initial recording, at the time of preparing the Financial Statements, if the net realizable value of the inventory is lower than the original price, the inventory is recorded at net realizable value.

Inventory value is determined by the weighted average method.

Inventories are accounted for using the perpetual inventory method.

7. Financial investments

Held-to-maturity investments: are investments that the Company has the intention and ability to hold until maturity.

Held-to-maturity investments include bank deposits with maturities of more than three months to one year and are recorded at cost.

8. Fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets and intangible fixed assets are initially recorded at cost. During use, tangible fixed assets and intangible fixed assets are recorded at cost, accumulated depreciation and residual value. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method.

Fixed asset depreciation is provided using the straight-line method with the estimated depreciation period as follows:

- Buildings, structures	03 - 13 years
- Machinery and equipment	06 - 10 years
- Transportation, motor vehicles	03 - 10 years
- Office equipment and furniture	03 - 05 years

9. Prepaid expenses

Expenses incurred related to the business performance of many accounting periods are recorded as prepaid expenses to be gradually allocated to the business performance in the following accounting periods.

The calculation and allocation of long-term prepaid expenses into production and business expenses for each accounting period is based on the nature and extent of each type of expense to select a reasonable allocation method and criteria. Prepaid expenses are gradually allocated into production and business expenses using the straight-line method.

10. Payables

Payables are monitored by payment term, payable entity, original currency and other factors according to the Company's management needs.

11. Borrowings and finance lease liabilities

The value of the finance lease liability is the total amount payable calculated by the present value of the minimum lease payments or the fair value of the leased asset.

Loans and financial lease liabilities are tracked by each lending entity, each loan agreement and the repayment term of the loans and financial lease liabilities. In case of loans and liabilities in foreign currency, detailed tracking is performed in the original currency.

12. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are recorded as production and business expenses in the period when incurred, except for borrowing costs directly related to the investment, construction or production of unfinished assets, which are included in the value of that asset (capitalized) when meeting all the conditions specified in Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 16 "Borrowing costs".

13. Accrued expenses

Payables for goods and services received from sellers or provided to buyers during the reporting period but not actually paid and other payables are recorded in production and business expenses of the reporting period.

The recording of payable expenses into production and business expenses during the period is carried out according to the principle of matching between revenue and expenses incurred during the period.

14. Provisions for payables

Provisions are only recognized when the following conditions are satisfied:

- The company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event;

- It is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation;
- Provide a reliable estimate of the value of that liability.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period.

The provision for payables is recorded in the production and business expenses of the accounting period. The difference between the amount of provision for payables established in the previous period that is not fully used and the amount of provision for payables established in the reporting period is reversed and recorded as a reduction in production and business expenses of the period.

15. Owner's equity

Owner's equity is recorded at the actual capital contributed by the owner.

Undistributed profit after tax reflects the business results (profit, loss) after corporate income tax and the Company's profit distribution or loss handling situation. Profit distribution is made when the Company has undistributed profit after tax. Undistributed profit after tax can be distributed to investors based on the capital contribution ratio after being approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and after setting aside funds according to the Company's Charter and the provisions of Vietnamese law.

16. Revenue

Sales revenue

Sales revenue is recognized when all of the following conditions are met:

- The significant risks and rewards of ownership of the product or goods have been transferred to the buyer;
- The Company no longer holds the right to manage the goods as the owner of the goods or the right to control the goods;
- Revenue is measured with relative certainty;
- The Company has obtained or will obtain economic benefits associated with the sale transaction;
- Identify the costs associated with a sales transaction.

Rendering of services

Revenue from rendering of services shall be recognised when all the following conditions have been satisfied:

- The amount of the revenue can be measured reliably;
- It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Company;
- The stage of the completion of the transaction at the end of the reporting period can be measured reliably; and
- The costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the transaction can be measured reliably.

Financial revenue

Revenue arising from interest, royalties, dividends, profits shared and other financial revenue is recorded when both (2) of the following conditions are satisfied:

- It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity;
- Revenue is measured with relative certainty;

18. Cost of goods sold

Cost of goods sold during the year is recorded in accordance with revenue generated during the year and ensures compliance with the principle of prudence.

19. Financial expenses

Expenses recorded in financial expenses include:

- Borrowing costs;
- Exchange rate losses of transactions involving foreign currencies

20. Corporate income tax

Current corporate income tax expense is determined based on taxable income in the period and corporate income tax rate in the current accounting period.

21. Related Parties

Parties are considered related if one party has the ability to control or has significant influence over the other party in making decisions regarding financial policies and operations. Parties are also considered related if they are under common control or are significantly influenced together.

In considering the relationship of related parties to serve for the preparation and presentation of Financial Statements, the Company should consider the nature of the relationship rather than the legal form of the relationship.
