NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(For the 9 months ended 30 September, 2026)

I. General Infromation

1. Structure of ownership.

Vinacomin - Minerals Holding Corporation, formerly known as Vietnam Minerals Holding Corporation, is a State-owned Corporation, established under Decision No. 1118/QĐ-TCCBDT dated October 27, 1995 of the Ministry of Heavy Industry (currently the Ministry of Industry and Trade).

In 2005, Vietnam National Coal and Mineral Industries Holding Corporation Limited (Vinacomin) was established under Decision No. 345/2005/QĐ-TTg dated December 26, 2005, by the Prime Minister, based on the merger of the Vietnam Coal Group and the Vietnam Minerals Holding Corporation and operates according to the Charter approved by the Prime Minister in Decision No. 228/2006/QĐ-TTg dated October 11, 2006. Accordingly, the Vietnam Minerals Holding Corporation was transformed into Vinacomin Minerals Holding Corporation and became a subsidiary of the Vietnam National Coal and Mineral Industries Holding Corporation Limited.

In 2006, Vinacomin Minerals Holding Corporation transitioned to operate under the parent-subsidiary model according to Decision No. 12/2006/QĐ-BCN dated April 27, 2006, by the Ministry of Industry (now the Ministry of Industry and Trade), and operates under the State-owned Enterprise Business Registration Certificate No. 0106000168, with the third amendment registered on May 3, 2007, with the Corporation's charter capital being VND 719,749,730,244.

In 2010, the Corporation changed its name to Vinacomin Minerals Holding Corporation - One Member Company Limited, with the abbreviated name Vinacomin Minerals Holding Corporation and it operates under Business Registration Certificate No. 0100103087, initially issued by the Hanoi Department of Planning and Investment on July 1, 2010, with the fourth amendment on August 21, 2012, and a charter capital of VND 1,350,000,000,000.

In 2015, the Corporation officially transitioned from a State-owned enterprise to a joint-stock company, now known as Vinacomin - Minerals Holding Corporation, and operates under Business Registration Certificate No. 0100103807, with the fifth amendment on October 6, 2015.

The charter capital of the Corporation, according to Business Registration Certificate No. 0100103807, amended for the 9th time on May 26, 2025, is VND 2,000,000,000,000 (In words: Two trillion Vietnam dong (only)). The Corporation's head office is located at 193 Nguyen Huy Tuong, Thanh Xuan Ward, Ha Noi City, Vietnam.

On July 28, 2016, the Corporation's shares were officially listed on the Unlisted Public Company Market (UPCOM) with the stock trading code KSV.

The Corporation's shares are listed on the Hanoi Stock Exchange (HNX) with the stock trading code KSV according to Decision No. 856/QĐ-SGDHN dated December 20, 2022, issued by the Hanoi Stock Exchange.

On December 28, 2022, the HNX issued Decision No. 872/QD-SGDHN regarding the cancellation of trading registration for VIMICO shares on the UPCOM due to the approval for listing on the HNX. Accordingly, the final trading day on UPCOM was January 16, 2023.

III. Applicable accounting policies and accounting standards

1. Basis of preparing consolidated financial statements and accounting policies:

The Corporation applies Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System issued with Circular No. 99/2025/TT-BTC dated October 27, 2025. Circular No. 202/2014/TT-BTC dated December 22, 2014 of the Ministry of Finance guiding methods of preparing and presenting consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards. The accompanying consolidated financial statements are not intended to present the consolidated financial position, consolidated results of operations and consolidated cash flows in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries and jurisdictions other than Vietnam.

2. Declaration on compliance with Accounting Standards and Accounting System:

The Board of Management has prepared and presented the Corporation's consolidated financial statements in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System and other prevailing legal regulations regarding the preparation and presentation of consolidated financial statements.

IV. Significant Accounting Policies, Accounting Estimates, and Relevant Statutory Regulations

Here are the main accounting policies applied by the Corporation in preparing these consolidated financial statements. The accounting policies applied by the Corporation in preparing these consolidated financial statements for the fiscal period are consistent with those applied in preparing the consolidated financial statements for the most recent fiscal year.

1. Principles for converting Financial Statements prepared in foreign currencies into Vietnam Dong (In case the accounting currency is different from Vietnam Dong); Effects (if any) of the conversion of Financial Statements from foreign currencies into Vietnam Dong.

2. Types of exchange rates applied when recognizing transactions

Commercial bank selected by the Corporation for applied exchange rates: The bank where transactions occur or where foreign currency balances are maintained at the end of the period.

Types of exchange rates applied when recognizing transactions:

- Exchange rates applied in transaction recording comprises:

Shall be used to convert into the accounting currency for transaction recorded increase: Revenue, Other income, Operating expenses, other expenses, Assets, Owners' equity, Receivable, Cash, Advances to suppliers, Payables, Advances from customers.

In case of sale of goods or rendering of services related to unearned revenue or receipts in advance from customers: Revenue, income corresponding to the amount received in advance shall be applied at the actual transaction exchange rate at the time of advances received.

In case of asset procurement related to advance transactions to suppliers: The value of assets corresponding to the advance amount shall be applied the actual transaction exchange rates at the time of advances to the suppliers.

- Specific identification bookkeeping exchange rate:

This will be used to convert into the accounting currency for transactions recorded decrease: Receivables, Advances from customers due to the transfer of products, goods, fixed asets, services, accepted volume, Collaterals, Prepaid expenses, Payables, Advances to suppliers for products, goods, fixed assets, services received, accepted volume.

In cases where multiple receivables or payables arise in foreign currencies with the same counterparty during the period, the specific identification book exchange rate for each counterparty is determined based on the moving weighted average of transactions with that counterparty

- Weighted average exchange rate: Used to convert into the currency recorded in the accounting books on the credit side of cash accounts when making payments in foreign currency.

- Exchange rate applied for revaluation at the end of the period:

Demand deposits in USD: The average mid-rate (transfer buying and selling rate) of the commercial bank where the Company maintains its deposit accounts at the end of the accounting period is applied.

Receivables, payables, cash on hand, and loans denominated in foreign currencies (converted to USD): The average mid-rate (transfer buying and selling rate) of the commercial bank where the Company frequently conducts transactions at the end of the accounting period is applied.

Note: The average mid-rate is determined as the arithmetic means of the transfer buying rate and the transfer selling rate.

3. Principles for determining the effective interest rate used for cash flow discounting.

4. Recognition of cash and cash equivalents.

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, demand deposits, cash in transit, and other cash equivalents of the entity. Cash equivalents may include bank notes, treasury bills, term deposits with original maturities of three months or less, and other short-term investments with maturities of three months or less from the date of acquisition, which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

The determination of cash equivalents is made in accordance with the requirements of Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 24 "Cash Flow Statements".

5. Recognition of financial investments

a) Trading securities

b) Recognition of financial investments:

Held-to-maturity investments are investments that the Board of Management intends and has the ability to hold until maturity.

Held-to-maturity investments are initially recognized at cost. After initial recognition, if no provision for doubtful debts has been established according to other regulations, these investments are recorded at their recoverable amount. Any impairment losses on these investments, if they arise, are accounted for as financial expenses in the statement of profit or loss and directly deducted from the investment's carrying amount.

c) Investments in subsidiaries and associates:

Investments in subsidiaries and associates are initially recognized at historical cost in the Separate Financial Statements. After initial recognition, these investments are measured at cost less provisions for diminution in value. (if any).

d) Investments in other entities.

Investments in other entities are initially recognized at historical cost. After initial recognition, these investments are measured at cost less provisions for diminution in value. Provisions for diminution in investment value are made when the investee has a loss. Provisions for diminution in investment value are recognized in the consolidated statement of profit or loss for the year.

đ) Accounting methods for other transactions related to financial investments.

6. Recognition of receivables

Receivables are amounts that can be collected from customers or other entities. Receivables are stated at carrying amount less provisions for doubtful debts.

Receivables shall be recorded specifically to original terms and remaining recovery terms as at the reporting date, original currencies and each object. At the consolidated financial statements' preparation date, receivables which have remaining recovery terms of no more than 12 months or a business cycle are classified as current receivables, receivables which have remaining recovery terms of over 12 months or a business cycle are classified as non-current receivables.

Provisions for doubtful debts represent the amounts of outstanding receivable at the consolidated statement of financial position date that the Corporation expected to be non-recoverable. Increases and decreases to the provision balances are recorded as general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statement of profit or loss. Provision for each receivable is made on the basis of overdue period according to the principal contract (exclusive of the debt rescheduling between contracting parties) or estimated irrecoverable losses.

7. Recognition of Inventories

- Inventories are determined based on the lower cost and net realizable value. The determination complies with the provisions of Accounting Standard No. 02 - "Inventories", namely: the price of inventories comprises all costs of purchases, costs of conversion and other costs directly related to bringing the inventories to the current location and status. The net realizable value is determined as the estimated selling price minus (-) the estimated costs to complete the product and the estimated costs necessary for consumption.

- Inventory valuation method: Weighted average.

- Method of inventory accounting: Perpetual inventory count.

- Method for inventory devaluation reserves: Provision for devaluation of inventories is made by the Corporation in accordance with prevailing accounting regulations. Accordingly, provision is made, where necessary, for obsolete, broken, poor quality items and in case the cost of inventory is higher than net realizable value at the end of the fiscal period. Increases and decreases in the provision balance are recorded in cost of goods sold during the year.

- Basis for allocation of raw materials and supplies:

- Method of determining work in progress at the end of the period: The cost of work in progress at the end of the period is determined by the prodution in progress output at each stage multiplied (x) by the unit production price incurred in the period, and by multiplying the quantity of unfinished products by (x) the unit cost of main raw materials (copper concentrate) at the smelting stage.

8. Recognition of Non-current Assets

Recognition of Tangible fixed assets and Depreciation (TFA):

Tangible fixed assets are measured at historical cost less accumulated depreciation.

The historical cost of tangible fixed asset comprises of its purchase price and any directly attributable costs to bring the tangible fixed assets into work condition for its intended use. The identification of the historical cost of each category of tangible fixed assets is in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 03 "Tangible fixed assets".

Expenditures incurred after the initial recognition (costs of upgrading, renovation, maintenance etc.) are recognized as operating expenses in the period. Where it can be clearly demonstrated that these expenses increase the expected future economic benefits of the use of fixed assets that exceed the standard operating level initially assessed, these expenses are capitalized as additional costs of the fixed assets.

When a tangible fixed asset is sold or disposed of, its historical cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the consolidated statement of financial position, and any gain or loss resulted from the disposal of the asset is included in the Corporation's consolidated statement of profit or loss.

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets is calculated on a straight-line method over estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives are classified by asset class as follows:

Fixed assets	Useful life
Buildings, structures	05 - 50 years
Machinery, equipment	05 - 20 years
Means of transport, transmission	05 - 15 years
Management equipment	03 - 10 years
Other tangible assets	03 - 10 years

Recognition of Intangible fixed assets and Amortization (IFA):

Intangible fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated amortization.

Land use rights include:

- Land use rights allocated by the State with the collection of land use fees.
- The right to use land leased prior to the effective date of the Land Law (2003) for which the land rent has been paid for a lease period of more than 5 years and issued with a certificate of land use rights by the competent authority.

The historical cost of a land use right includes all costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the land use right. Fixed-term land use rights are amortized on a straight-line basis over the validity period of the land use right certificates. Indefinite land use rights are not amortized.

Computer software:

The cost of acquiring new computer software that is not an integral part of the related hardware is accounted for as an intangible fixed asset. The Corporation's software program includes accounting software. Computer software is amortized using the straight-line method over a period of 03 - 05 years.

Recognition of finance lease fixed assets:

Finance lease fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

The cost of a finance lease fixed asset is recognized at the present value of the minimum lease payment plus initial costs incurred in connection with a finance lease. If the input VAT is deductible, the present value of the minimum lease payments does not include the amount of VAT payable to the lessor.

The interest rate applied to calculate the present value of the minimum rental payment for the lease of the property: Interest rate stated in the lease agreement.

Finance lease fixed assets are depreciated based on applying a depreciation policy consistent with that of similar assets owned by the Corporation.

9. Recognition of Biological Assets.

10. Recognition of Business Cooperation Contracts

11. Recognition of prepayments.

Prepayments are expenses which have actually incurred yet they are related to operation results of several accounting periods.

Prepayments expenses mainly include the value of tools and instruments, costs of mining rights, exploration information usage fees, goodwill, fixed asset repair costs and other costs incurred in the business operations of the Corporation, which are considered to provide future economic benefits to the Corporation. These expenses are allocated to the consolidated statement of profit or loss based on the straight-line method, according to the estimated period of use or recovery of the costs by the Corporation.

Prepayments shall be recorded in detail of allocation period. As at consolidated reporting date, prepaid expenses which have allocation period of no more than 12 months or a business cycle since the date of prepayment are classified as current prepaid expenses, expenses which have period over 12 months or over a business cycle since the date of prepayment are classified as non-current prepaid expenses.

3. Recognition of payables.

Payables are stated at historical cost. Payables shall be recorded especially on original terms and remaining terms as at reporting date, original currencies and each object. At consolidated financial statements' preparation date, payables that have remaining repayment terms of no more than 12 months or a business cycle are classified as current payables, the payables that have remaining repayment terms of over 12 months or a business cycle are classified as non-current payables.

13. Recognition of Dividend and Profit Payables

The timing for recognizing dividend and profit payables in cash or non-monetary assets is when the enterprise has no discretion to avoid the obligation to distribute dividends or profits to its shareholders or contributing members, in accordance with relevant statutory regulations

14. Recognition of accrued expenses

Accrued expenses include expenses that have been recorded in the operating cost but not actually paid at the end of the fiscal period to ensure the consistency between revenues and expenses. Accrued expenses are recorded based on the reasonable estimation of amount payable for received goods and services. Accrued expenses at the end of the period include Interest expenses and operating expenses for which supporting documents have not yet been received.

Basis for determining accrued expenses:

- Accrued interest expenses: Based on the principal balance, overdue debt (for late payment interest), maturity and applicable interest rate.

- Accrued operating expenses but no supporting documents yet: Based on documents to determine debt obligations and costs that may be incurred.

15. Recognition of deferred revenue.

Deferred revenue is recognized when the Corporation receives advance payments from customers related to lease payments for space.

The method of allocating deferred revenue involves recognizing it as income in the financial results of the period, based on the time and term associated with the advance payments received.

16. Principles and Methods for recognizing provisions for liabilities

Provisions are recognized when the Corporation has a current obligation (legal or constructive) resulting from a past event; there is a probable outflow of economic benefits to settle the obligation; and a reliable estimate of the obligation's value can be made. Provisions for liabilities are recognized when they meet the conditions specified in Accounting Standard No. 18 "Provisions, Contingent Assets, and Contingent Liabilities".

Method of recognizing provisions for liabilities

Provisions for liabilities are to be increased (or reversed) based on the significant difference between the provisions that need to be made this period and the provisions that were established last year and not yet utilized, as recorded in the accounting books.

The provisions for liabilities of the Corporation include: provisions for environmental restoration costs for operating mines based on the annual amount deposited as required.

17. Principles of deferred income tax accounting

- Deferred income tax assets:

Deferred corporate income tax assets are corporate income tax amounts that will be recovered in the future, determined based on deductible temporary differences, the carry-forward value of unused tax losses and tax incentives.

Deferred corporate income tax assets are recognized only when it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized. At the end of the year, deferred corporate income tax assets are reviewed and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized. Previously unrecognized deferred corporate income tax assets are also reviewed and recognized - to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the deferred corporate income tax assets can be utilized.

Deferred corporate income tax expenses are recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred corporate income tax expense is measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled. Deferred corporate income tax expense is recognized in the consolidated statement of profit or loss, except when it relates to items charged or credited directly to equity.

- Deferred corporate income tax liabilities:

Deferred corporate income tax liabilities are the amount of corporate income tax that will be payable in the future, determined based on deductible temporary differences and corporate income tax rates.

- Tax rate: Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled. The applicable tax rate is 20%.

- Offset: When preparing and presenting the consolidated financial statements, deferred corporate income tax assets and deferred corporate income tax expenses are offset only to the extent that they relate to the calculation of corporate income tax levied by the same tax authority.

18. Recognition of loans and finance lease liabilities.

Loans and finance lease liabilities shall be specially recorded to each object, terms, original currencies. As at the consolidated financial statement's preparation date, loans and finance lease liabilities that have remaining repayment terms of less than 12 months or a business cycle are classified as short-term loans and finance lease liabilities, ones that have remaining repayment terms of over 12 months or a business cycle are classified as long-term loans and finance lease liabilities.

19. Recognition of borrowing costs and capitalization.

Borrowing costs include interest expenses. Borrowing costs are recognized as financial expenses in the period when they are incurred (except for cases where they are capitalized in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 16 "Borrowing costs").

Borrowing costs directly related to the construction or production of work-in-progress assets shall be accounted into the value of such assets (capitalized) after deducted gains from temporary investment activities of such borrowings. These borrowing costs are capitalized as part of the cost of assets when it is probable that they will result in future economic benefits to the Corporation and the costs can be measured reliably.

For general borrowings that are partly used for the construction or production of qualifying assets under construction, borrowing costs eligible for capitalization are determined based on the capitalization rate in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standard No. 16 – "Borrowing Costs".

Capitalization of borrowing costs should be ceased when the necessary activities to bring the qualifying asset to its intended use or sale are complete. Borrowing costs then incurred are recognized as financial expenses during the year.

20. Recognition of Convertible Bond

21. Recognition of owners' equity:

- Owners' equity: Share capital is recognized according to the actual amount of capital contributed by shareholders. The contributed capital of the shareholders is recorded at the actual price of the issue of shares in detail of two items: the owner's contributed capital and the share premiums.

- Principles for Recognition of Revaluation Surplus: Revaluation surplus reflects the difference between the fair value and the carrying amount of an asset when the entity performs a revaluation in accordance with applicable regulations.

When the revalued amount of an asset increases, the surplus is recognized in equity under Revaluation surplus.

When the revalued amount decreases, the reduction is recognized either by reducing any existing revaluation surplus in equity related to that asset, or in profit or loss, depending on the circumstances.

Revaluation adjustments are recognized only when there is a valid decision by the competent authority or in accordance with the relevant accounting standards.

- Recognition of retained earnings:

Retained earnings reflect the business results (profit, loss) after corporate income tax and profit-sharing situation or dealing with loss of the Corporation. Retained earnings shall be recorded in detail with the operational results of each financial period (previous period, current period) and with each profit-sharing content (funds distribution, additional investment capital of the owner, dividends, profits for shareholders and investors).

22. Recognition of revenue:

- Revenue from sales of goods and rendering of services:

+ Revenue from selling ores and goods:

Revenue from selling ores and goods are recognized in the consolidated statement of profit or loss when the significant risks and benefits of ownership of the ores or goods have been transferred to the buyer. Revenue is not recognized if there are material uncertainties regarding the recovery of the receivables or the possibility of sales returns. Sales revenue is recognized at the net amount after deducting the discount on the sales invoice.

+ Revenue from rendering of services:

Revenue from rendering of services is recognized in the consolidated statement of profit or loss based on the percentage of completion method. The percentage of completion is assessed by evaluating the work that has been performed. Revenue is not recognized if there are significant uncertainties regarding the recoverability of the receivables.

- Financial income:

Financial incomes include Interest from deposits, interest on advance payments, interest on environmental margin, dividends received, foreign exchange gains.

Interest from deposits, interest on advance payments, interest on environmental margin: Recognized based on time and actual interest rates each period, unless the recoverability of interest is uncertain.

Dividends and profit distributions: These are recognized when the Corporation has the right to receive dividends or profit distributions from its investments. Stock dividends are not recognized as income but are only tracked down as an increase in the number of shares held.

Foreign exchange gains: These are recognized based on the differences between the settlement exchange rate and the carrying exchange rate upon settlement of foreign currency–denominated receivables and payables, as well as from the revaluation of exchange rate differences at the end of the period.

23. Recognition of Revenue deductions

24. Recognition of cost of goods sold:

Cost of goods sold is recognized according to the principle of the matching between revenue and expenses.

To ensure the principle of prudence, the costs exceeding the normal level of inventories are recognized as expenses in the period (after deducting the compensation, if any), including: cost of raw materials directly consumed in excess of normal levels, labor costs, overall fixed manufacturing costs not allocated to the production cost, loss and missing inventory and etc.

The Corporation did not incur any reductions in cost of goods sold during the period.

25. Recognition of financial expenses

Financial costs include interest costs, foreign exchange losses.

Interest expenses (including accrued interests) of the reporting period are fully recognized in the period.

26. Selling and general and administrative expenses

Selling expenses are actual expenses incurred in the sale of products, goods and services, including instrument and tool costs and other monetary costs.

General and administrative expenses: include administrative employees expenses (salaries, wages, allowances, etc.); social insurance, health insurance, trade union funds, unemployment insurance of administrative employees; expenses of office supplies, labor tools, depreciation of fixed assets used for enterprise management; land rental, excise; provision for doubtful debts; outsourced services (electricity, water, telephone, fax, asset insurance, explosion, etc.); other monetary expenses (guest reception, customer conference, etc).

27. Principles for Accounting of Disposal of Property, Plant and Equipment and Investment Property.

28. Principles and Methods for Recognition of Income Tax Expense.

- Current income tax expense: Current income tax expense is determined on the basis of taxable income and corporate income tax rate for the current year (20%).

- Other taxes are applied in accordance with applicable tax laws in Vietnam. Tax reports of the Corporation is subject to the examination of tax agency. Due to the various explanations of tax law and regulations application for different transactions, tax amount in the financial statements will be adjusted according to final decision of the tax agency.
